

Grzegorax Adamek

I have been coming to Turnaround for about a year using the Resource Centre two – three times a week. Turnaround helped me with job search and with fares to attend the employment agency and the first week of work. I currently work as a street cleaner. My thanks to all at Turnaround for their effort, and for making a difference in my life. You helped me to move forward in my life.

February 2009